Teacher's page

Answers, card games and lesson plan · do not hand out

1 · Match the emojis

1 H worried · 2 C delighted · 3 A annoyed · 4 G terrified · 5 B bored · 6 D disappointed · 7 E excited · 8 F surprised

2 · -ed or -ing?

1 boring · 2 excited · 3 surprising · 4 disappointed · 5 annoying · 6 terrified

4 · Comparatives

sadder · happier · calmer · angrier · more excited · more worried · better · worse

6 · Which is stronger?

annoyed → angry → furious pleased → happy → delighted worried → scared → terrified

5 · Compare the emojis (model answers)

- Ben is happier than Ana.
- Mia is more worried than Leo.
- Eva is more excited than Max.
- Sara is angrier than Tom.
- Kai is sadder than Zoe.
- Noa is calmer than Ivan.

Card games (one set for every 3 or 4 students)

- Memory: all the cards face down. Turn over two: a face and its word make a pair. Say a sentence with the word to keep them.
- Act it out: take a face card and act it. The first student to say "You look ..." takes the card.
- Compare: take two face cards and say a sentence: "This one is more scared than that one." The group decides if it is correct.
- Stories: take three word cards and tell a short story that uses all three.

Suggested lesson (45 minutes)

3 min	Opening: the first two slides.
12 min	Emotions: the four slides of faces, then tasks 1 and 3.
5 min	-ed or -ing: the slide, then task 2.
10 min	Comparatives: the rules and the "who is more...?" slides, then tasks 4 to 6.
10 min	Card games in groups.
5 min	Your turn: task 7, and each student says one sentence aloud.

Printing

- Worksheet: one copy per student, on both sides of the page.
- Cards: one set per group, one side only. Cut them before class or let the students do it.
- Colour is optional: the faces also read well in black and white.